Nov 9, 2020 Version 2.6.3 - World 6 Realm Siege levels are added- World 6 Endless level is added- Bug corrects Hello everyone, I'll just write a few reasons, I think realm defense is the best tower defense game out there. Your standard tower defense games are exactly the same over and over again. In Realm Defense you hero Gabe, you can unlock and buy and level them up to increase statistics and special attacks. There are a multitude of mini-games to play as well, which allows us users to gain power or ether elements or unlock stronger heroes. You have arcade mode and endless mode which is a good way to earn free power-ups using your raid cards, you automatically get the highest level for the world You're done. The developers are very friendly and very quick on the response time when I contact them. I've always won free gems a few times by simply sharing realm defense facebook post. Just share there post and keep an eye out for other free donations. And it only cost you a share of Realm Defense Facebook post, so you can't beat that, easy free money boys. One for the developer who have worked countless days a night to make do game the best it can a Thank you all, Anyone who had something to do with this game should be very proud of themselves. One I would just like to say thank you to your entire team of developers to the graphic design team for coders, Artists/Visuals, a customer support team you've all been great help in making me my gems that I earn. Keep up the great work and remember to stay a team one this game will take your business to the next level. I've been playing this game for a while on and off, but recently picked it up again and played it for almost 3-4 months in a row, and I can say that this game is one of the best out there. No annoying popups for micro-transactions, so spending more favorable to the game rather than because you have to, and the game makes you have to progress and shut down. You get to unlock heroes as you progress through the campaign in which you have to save gems for, a currency you get through the campaign as well as the tournament and other modes. In addition to unlocking heroes, you manage to rank them to unlock more power, making all your heroes even stronger. This game takes a while to rank everyone and hit the top of the tournament, but it's fun at any point in the game. New content is released every few months and there are events that you can participate in unlocking new skins and heroes that is cool. The community for the game is also nice as everyone is helpful and can provide insight into the game and what to do. A new world will also be coming soon so play the game now! Like any game, there are its drawbacks, as some heroes are too weak while others dominate and the content can feel slow once you've gone through everything there is right now. But any game has its moments not to be the best. I just downloaded the game again after not playing for about 2 years, the game has changed a lot, but not for the better. Theyve has added 3 new worlds and atleast 7 more heroes. World 3 was also only 20 levels when I played before. The arcade and Realm Siege are new. so there's a lot to do in the game, but its all-time gated or encourages you to pay money for gems. A few years ago this game was not like that, you could re-run the levels you had already beaten to level your heroes, I came to leave this review and saw that I had already started a review a few years ago and it saidElixir is easy to get now that ive run world 2 level 16 about 80 times now lol. great game! It was a game that you could sit and play for hours and continually progress, you could grind your heroes. Now you only get exp from undefeated levels and the gem rewards are much lower than they were, you get even fewer gems from the quests. I remember having all the available heroes unlocked by the time I finished world 3, and now im not even close and can't afford more after buying obsidian who used to be a great hero, but it looks weak now. Overall good game to play for a day, probably wouldn't spend money on it since your money take you away. Too much time.
